Join with Leading Midwives from around the World

Celebrate the life and work of

Tricia Anderson

Saturday, 14 June 9.00am,
Wollstonecraft Lecture Theatre, Bournemouth House, Lansdowne Campus, Christchurch Road, Bournemouth

Find maps at http://www.bournemouth.ac.uk/about/transport_and_maps/maps/maps.html

Programme:

08.30 Registration
09.00 Professor Paul Lewis: Introduces the day
Soo Downe: Drinking tea intelligently; reflections on a phenomenal woman
Jane Evans: Trusting Midwifery Skills
Billie Hunter: Relationships; the hidden threads in the tapestry of maternity care
Kirsten Baker: Poetry Reading

10.30 Tea/Coffee
Sally Millar: One midwife’s struggle for passionate midwifery in Ireland
Sarah Coates: Poetry Reading
Verena Schmidt: Why the world needs midwives with a heart
Jane Grant: rooted in the now; a passion for enquiry

12.30 Lunch – please bring your own, and maybe something to share!
Kirsten Baker: Midwifery and the magic ‘if’
Flo Logan: Poetry reading
Holly Powell Kennedy: Midwifery presence: philosophy, art and science
Pat Brodie: Passionate Leadership; let’s get it together

15.00 Tea/Coffee
Nicky Leap: Power, pain and passion: the legacy of Tricia Anderson
Rachel Wheeler: Poetry reading
Lorna Davies: Finding your heart’s song: bringing harmony back to birth

17.00 Rona McCandlish, NPEU: concluding thoughts

Booking Form for Passionate Midwifery, 14 June 2008

Name:............................................................................................................................................................................
Address:................................................................................................................................................................................ email:..................................................................................................................................................................................
Telephone...........................................................................................................................................................................
/Mobile..........................................................................................................................................................................

Tickets £25.00. Students/unwaged £15.00. Please make cheques payable to Iolanthe Midwifery Trust
(Tricia Anderson Fund)

Please send payment with this booking form to The Passionate Midwifery Conference, Fiona Cusack, Bournemouth University, 17 Christchurch Road, Bournemouth, BH1 3LH.